SELWYN

FROM THE LAND

With many short walks and tramping tracks, ranging from alpine to coastal, there is a place to explore in Selwyn for everyone.

Check out the water birds on our lakes or spot a tuna (eel) in our rivers. The native fauna is plentiful in the mountains.

Choose a walk to suit the whole family and head out on an adventure this summer.

Welcome to Summer Selwyn

Kia ora

Selwyn has some amazing spaces for your friends and whānau to spend your summer. Plenty of sweet picnic spots by rivers and lakes or towns to wander around and treat yourself.

Our miles of scenic driving routes and fantastic cycle tracks will help you explore all that Selwyn has to offer, from Arthur's Pass to Te Waihora/Lake Ellesmere.

This summer sees the return of our Summer in Selwyn programme, featuring over 80 Council-run events for the young and young-at-heart to enjoy. Check out the handy fridge guide in the centre of this brochure and mark your calendars so you don't miss out!

Whether you're new to Selwyn or have lived here for some time, I hope we can encourage you to explore and try something new this summer.

Keep an eye out on our social channels for more ideas, videos and competitions.

Ngā mihi,

Sam Broughton
Mayor of Selwyn
