Winter What's On Brochure out now

Our What's on in Selwyn winter guide is out now and is packed with activities to brighten up the cooler months ahead. Whether you're after inspiration, entertainment, or family fun, this guide has it all.

Renowned speaker Paul Wood will be delivering a powerful seminar, 'Winning at Work and Life – Mastering Life's Demands' on Friday 13 June at Lincoln Event Centre. It promises to be an energising evening for anyone seeking to navigate life's challenges with strength and clarity.

Then, celebrate the magic of Matariki on 19 June with a free event for all the whānau. Enjoy stunning light displays, captivating kapa haka performances, live music, storytelling, and interactive activities. It's a chance to reflect and celebrate the Māori New Year with light, culture, and connection.

Families can also look forward to Jump 'n' Juggle on 10 July, a high-energy indoor event bringing together circus skills and bouncy fun to shake off the winter chills.

Animal lovers won't want to miss the Selwyn Pet Expo on 24 August—a fun and furry favourite which showcases pets, products, and demonstrations.

The guide also includes plenty of hands-on workshops for the creatively inclined. Try your hand at crafting a mosaic, weaving a cosy scarf, or learning embroidery. For lovers of lifelong learning, check out homebrewing basics, fly fishing essentials, or a drawing workshop.

Fitness fans are well looked after too, with our group fitness and recreation timetables all making a return for the season.
