Stay safe this Guy Fawkes

Fireworks are lots of fun but if they are let off in the wrong place or in the wrong way they can cause injuries and start fires.

The Rolleston Fireworks Display on 5 November is a great way to enjoy this special time without worrying about what can go wrong – and the display is usually a lot more impressive (and cheaper) than having one at home.

If you are having a fireworks night at your place, take a moment to think about safety before you start. Keep a bucket of water on hand when lighting your fireworks so they can be put out quickly if anything goes wrong.

Pets can also suffer on this day. It's a great idea to let your neighbours know if you are letting off fireworks at your house so they can put their pets inside for a couple of hours.

A reminder, too, that bonfires are not allowed in residential areas.

Enjoy your Guy Fawkes and keep safe!

ROLLESTON FIREWORKS

Black Market

An exhibition featuring the work of artist Louann Sidon

Friday 28 October – Thursday 3 November

Louann Sidon continues to use animals as a source of inspiration in her work. This body of work speaks about animal cruelty as well as the poignant and sometimes rapacious relationship between humans and animals. She illustrates in a variety of ways and mediums including watercolour, etching and conceptual art.

Selwyn Gallery will be open daily (except Mondays) from 10am to 4pm for the one week of this exhibition. An exhibition programme will be available on the gallery's website www.selwyngallery.co.nz or from the gallery.
