Smooth start to new Give Way rules in Selwyn

A huge number of people have taken the opportunity to look up the NZTA Give Way Rules website and check their knowledge, and many local people also tested their skills at Selwyn District Council Libraries and Service Centres. After completing the test, they went into the draw for Road Safety T-shirts. All winners have now been notified.

Selwyn District Road Safety Coordinator Ngaire Tinning says it appears people have adjusted quickly to the new Give Way rules.

“Patience and courtesy has been clearly evident across the district. Although the changes to the give way rules mainly affect drivers, motorcyclists and cyclists, it is essential for everyone to understand the new rules, children included,” she says.

Always take another look at intersections, it only takes a second and it could save a life.
