How are you getting home tonight?

If you're having a few people round for drinks at your home, planning a BBQ or party, being a responsible host is vital.

Suggestions for hosts:

- Offer non-alcoholic and low alcohol drinks
- Always have water available on the bar or table
- Don't be overly generous when it comes to pouring measures of drinks
- Help your guests organise safe transport options, or offer a couch.
- Having one or more drivers who can safely take your guests home is always possible, even in rural areas.
- Drink and serve alcohol responsibly

"How are you getting home tonight?" It's not rocket science, driving after a few drinks or allowing a mate to drive after a few drinks is not an option!

The Directory lists useful websites, Council Libraries/Service Centre information, health and medical services and social services.

You can pick up copies of the directory at Council offices and service centre/libraries in Darfield, Rolleston, Lincoln and Leeston.

Main Building Contractors Registration of Interest Construction of a residential dwelling at Springston

Registrations of Interest (ROI) are invited from main contractors only, for the design and build of a three to four bedroom residential house on Council land at Springston.

Council are undertaking a subdivision in Springston and are looking to construct a residential dwelling on one of the sections available.

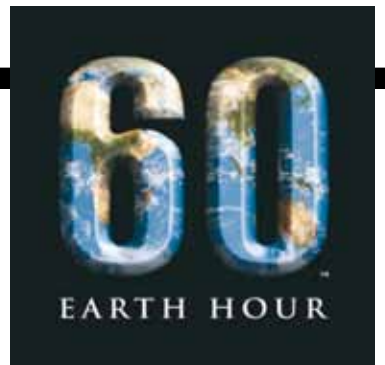

It is anticipated that construction work would commence possibly late 2012, yet to be agreed.

The ROI needs to include a company profile and structure, relevant experience, personnel and 3 referees. Only those companies that have an appropriate background and experience will be considered.

The Selwyn District Council reserves the right not to proceed to a Request for Proposal (RFP) and/or to limit or extend the list of participants beyond those who respond to this ROI.

Responses are to be sent by email or by hard copy only to the address below and should be received by 4pm on Friday, 25 May, 2012.
