Have your say on how rural residential development is managed

The Council has released a draft Rural Residential Strategy that applies to the eastern portion of the district that is within the commuter belt of Christchurch City. We would like to hear your thoughts on how rural residential development should be managed in the future.

The Strategy has been prepared in response to an action contained within the Land Use Recovery Plan and will inform changes to the District Plan.

You can view the Statement of Proposal, Draft Strategy and obtain submission forms from the Council's Rolleston Headquarters, Services Centres and online at www.selwyn.govt.nz. All submissions must be received by 5pm on Monday 3 March 2014.

Darfield Senior Day Club Meeting 13 February at Darfield Recreation Centre, 10am-2pm

Will there be a Celebrating Selwyn 2015?

Every two years, Celebrating Selwyn offers a fortnight-long window of opportunity for the Selwyn community to showcase its culture, heritage and environment. It is organised by a voluntary committee.

If we are to repeat the previously successful Celebrating Selwyn event in 2015, then we need your support now!

We need the Selwyn community at large to provide a strong and enthusiastic team to plan and run the event. We have an experienced embryo team, but, without new team members, our numbers will be insufficient.

The artists and craft workers, the cultural and heritage ambassadors, the cafés and markets, the vineyards and specialist food suppliers, the recreational and environmental groups, the accommodation providers, the community groups – in fact all of those of you who make Selwyn such a special place – are needed as participants in the event.

So if you want to see Celebrating Selwyn happen in 2015, then please contact us to indicate your interest. You can email us at celebratingselwyn@gmail.com and / or come along to our meeting on 19 February 2014 at 6.30pm at Rolleston Community House, 45 Shelley Street, Rolleston. You can call Wendy Rockhouse on 343 5727 (work) or 342 9957 (evenings) to discuss.

We look forward to hearing from you!

The Celebrating Selwyn Team.
