Selwyn Aquatic Centre is PoolSafe

The Selwyn Aquatic Centre has been awarded national PoolSafe accreditation. To achieve this, the Centre met requirements relating to pool water quality, emergency action plans, lifeguard qualifications, training and levels of supervision.

Selwyn Aquatic Facilities Manager Kathy Moore says while it is not a legal requirement to have PoolSafe accreditation to operate a public pool, the accreditation ensures pool safety standards are high both for the public and staff.

"This gives people confidence that the facility is safe, runs efficiently and follows best practise guidelines for public swimming pools."

"Achieving this accreditation is quite a complex process. We have been working on it since opening the facility so there is a certain amount of pride in knowing the facility runs in a manner that ensures we are providing a safe environment for the community," says Mrs Moore.

PoolSafe aims to reduce the number of water related injuries in and around pools. It is a New Zealand Recreation Association and Water Safety New Zealand programme which incorporates a range of initiatives including educational resources, public awareness campaigns and a Quality Management Scheme for public pools.

Arts Heart Review

ARTS HEART
Selwyn Central Arts Council

The Annual Arts Heart Exhibition held in the Rolleston Community Centre was a wonderful success.

Over 30 Selwyn artists had their art on display. The "People's Choice" award was won by Henry Turner, a young West Melton artist, with a stunning painting titled NZ Gebe Swimming.

Many of the exhibiting artists were first time exhibitors and the quality of our up and coming artists is reassuring for the arts in our area.

Next year's exhibition will be in conjunction with Celebrating Selwyn and we look forward to another fantastic event.

Rails Mackey, Arts Heart Chairperson.
