

Explore the arts with the Selwyn Arts Directory

A new arts directory is now available for Selwyn residents.

The Selwyn Arts Directory, the first of its kind, is the result of a collaborative effort between the Selwyn Arts Trust and Selwyn District Council and provides a comprehensive list of over 120 artists, arts groups, arts tutors and art galleries across Selwyn district.

Creative New Zealand's Creative Communities Scheme funded the production of the directory.

Selwyn District Council Arts Advisor Rachael Inch says the art directory brings together the visual arts, music, dance, literature, performance, venues, and arts organisations from around the district. "Whether you are looking for tuition for yourself or your child, needing to learn a wedding dance, want to visit a gallery or commission a piece of art for your home or business, it's all in the directory," she says.

Chairperson of the Selwyn Arts Trust, Michael McEvedy is delighted to launch the first edition. "Selwyn has a vibrant arts scene and we are proud to bring it together in the directory for residents to enjoy."

Copies are available from Selwyn libraries, Lincoln Event Centre, Rolleston Community Centre and Selwyn District Council. They are also available at the following arts organisations: Down By The Liffey Gallery, Expoz Art gallery, Nutpoint Centre, Longueville Gallery and Selwyn Gallery. An electronic copy of the directory is also available at www.selwynartstrust.org.nz

Learn computer skills for free

Selwyn Libraries are partnering with the 2020 Trust to host Stepping UP, a national computer and internet training programme, offering free sessions at Leeston and Darfield Libraries.

Sessions will cover computer basics like Microsoft Word, email, Google and internet searching and Facebook. They run fortnightly on Fridays from 10am-12pm at the libraries. Sessions start from Friday 6 May at Darfield Library and from Friday 13 May at Leeston Library and are open to anyone aged 13 and over.

To find out more and register visit www.steppingup.nz or call Darfield Library on 318 7780 or Leeston Library on 347 2871. The sessions have a maximum class size of five.

Trade waste and wastewater bylaw consultation opens

Consultation opens on Wednesday 4 May on new wastewater and trade waste bylaws. Changes to the wastewater bylaw include restrictions on the use of common drains which will affect newly built properties in the future (but not existing properties) and including new clauses into the bylaw which reflect existing practices prohibiting the disposal of non-fibrous or non-biodegradable material, requirements relating to waste minimisation and sustainable management and minimum and prohibited requirements for domestic wastewater. Clauses relating to the potential for wastewater services to be disrupted due to natural hazards or emergencies have also been added.

The trade wastes bylaw affects some commercial businesses operating in Selwyn and regulates the discharge of material which could be harmful to the wastewater network or environment if not managed appropriately. The revised bylaw is largely the same as the previous version except new clauses have been added in requiring that trade wastes be pre-treated, that evidence of regular maintenance of treatment systems be supplied by businesses along with information on how often samples are taken. The Council can also request independent supporting advice from applicants for consents, and undertake technical reviews to reassess and reclassify a discharge.

Copies of the revised bylaws are available online at www.selwyn.govt.nz/haveyoursay and from Council libraries. Submissions are open until 4pm, Monday 4 July.

District Plan launches in E plan format

The Council's District Plan is now online in an interactive format, making it easier to check what the District Plan rules are that affect your property.

The new format – called an E Plan – makes it easy to look up the zoning of your property and the rules that apply for things like the distance from your garage to property boundary, fencing rules, and what activities are permitted on your property. To use the new plan visit eplan.selwyn.govt.nz and type in your property address. To view the applicable District Plan rules once your property appears choose the 'Show District Plan for' tab. You can also search the 'Search provisions' bar at the top to look for particular topics in the District Plan.

The new format plan replaces the hard copy of the Selwyn District Plan. The paper version of the District Plan was around 1,500 pages in total. The electronic version of the plan makes it easier to find sections applicable to different properties and includes hyperlinks so people can easily refer to other sections referenced in the District Plan.

If you need help to use the new service or have a question that isn't answered in the plan you can phone the Council's free duty planner service on 347 2868 or email planninginfo@selwyn.govt.nz.

On the roads this week

Road repairs and resealing is planned along Rakaia Terrace Road with temporary traffic signals in place. Road repairs are planned for Bethels, Drain and Bealey Roads and Masefield Drive, with traffic controls in place. Road surface levelling is taking place along Cordys Road and Station Street in Leeston, with temporary lane closures occurring while works occur.

Work to extend Broadlands Drive to connect to Springston Rolleston Road and install a new roundabout at the junction is continuing. Temporary speed restrictions are in place. A sewer main is also being laid on Springston Rolleston Road, terminating just before the new roundabout. Temporary traffic signals are in place with short delays for road users especially at peak times. Power cables are being laid underground on Lowes Road, but the road remains open. Tara Bridge (south west of Bush Gully Road) on Malvern Hills Road will be closed from 10-23 May while the bridge deck is replaced.

Residents Survey now underway

The Council's annual Residents Survey will be carried out from this week until 13 May. The survey is being carried out independently by Versus Research, who will be contacting a number of Selwyn households via telephone or through social media and inviting them to take part in the survey.

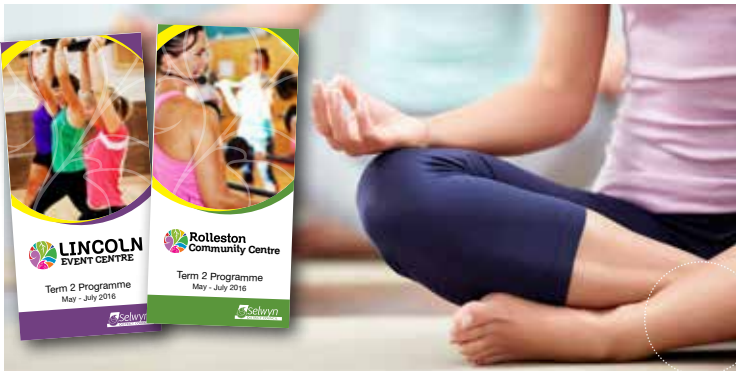

Keep fit over winter

Term 2 classes start this week at Rolleston Community Centre and Lincoln Event Centre, offering a great range of exercise options over winter for all ages.

New classes this term at Rolleston Community Centre are: yoga, pump for beginners and step pump combo. The centre has a wide range of other classes including mini gym, skate and basketball classes for kids, and circuit classes.

New this term at Lincoln Event Centre is an eight week small group challenge programme with Jo Knight from Mojo Coaching, which also includes nutrition and training advice. Other classes at the centre include mini gym, little feet dancers, Zumba, low impact for seniors and many other options.

To view term 2 programmes please visit www.selwyn.govt.nz/rcc or www.selwyn.govt.nz/lec or pick up a brochure from the centres. Prior enrolment is required for some classes.
