

Lincoln and Rolleston are continuing to light up

Rolleston recently welcomed its first township traffic lights, but six more sets of lights are to be installed over the next decade around Lincoln and Rolleston.

Alongside the two sets of lights already installed in Rolleston, another two are scheduled as part of the Long-Term Plan, while four sets are set to be installed in Lincoln.

The two recently installed lights in Rolleston are on Rolleston Drive/Masefield Drive, and at Hoskyns Road/Jones Road.

The two new projects, which are set to be completed over the next three years, will see traffic lights replacing the roundabouts at Tennyson/Springston Rolleston/Lowes Road and at Rolleston Drive/Tennyson Street.

Asset Manager Transportation, Andrew Mazey, says the new Rolleston Drive/Tennyson Street lights are designed to work in with the town centre development.

“We would like to coordinate this work in with the construction of the marquee town centre build of the new community centre and library.

For Mazey and his team, this work is about future-proofing a continually growing town.

“With Rolleston we understand that the community is continuing to grow, and we will continue to monitor the town to ensure that traffic flow is kept steady, and that we best service the community.”

The Council is also working alongside the NZ Transport Agency to help improve access to Rolleston.

“Continuing on from the Christchurch Southern Motorway project we have been working alongside NZTA to bring improvements with developing and changing future access to the town.”

Like Rolleston, Lincoln has also been experiencing significant growth, and a beautification process of Gerald Street will run alongside the installation of new traffic lights in the village.

Four sets of traffic lights are set to be installed at intersections along Gerald Street.

They will be at Gerald/West Belt, Gerald/Veron Drive, Gerald/Springs Road and Gerald/James and Edward Street.

Andrew Mazey says these will be hugely important to help preserve the village feel of Lincoln.

“With the transformation and beautification of Gerald Street, developing good traffic flow will help increase the user experience for those living and visiting Lincoln, as well as helping those on foot and cycling through the village.”

Mr Mazey says the travel habits of Lincoln University students is aa factor in planning the new projects, and the Gerald Street/Springs Road traffic signals will help ensure the safety of those travelling to and from the University campus.

Last chance for Selwyn Awards Gala Dinner tickets

Get in quick to secure your ticket to the crown jewel of Selwyn’s social calendar - the 2018 Selwyn Awards Gala Dinner.

This biennial event – which celebrates everything great about our beautiful district and those who contribute to it - will be held on Saturday 4 August at the Lincoln Event Centre.

The Gala Dinner features a stunning menu, created from local produce, local wine and beer, along with outstanding entertainment and the chance to celebrate Selwyn’s amazing achievers.

The MC for the evening will be comedian and well known TV personality Jeremy Corbett, who’s sure to bring the laughs.

With ticket sales set to close very soon (Friday 27 July), now is your last opportunity to secure a seat at this event. Tickets can be purchased as singles, with no limit to purchases. Tables of eight can also be purchased.

This is a great chance to glam up, enjoy a spectacular evening of winners, raise a glass and toast the success stories of our district.

Tickets are available through the Council website, or through www.iticket.co.nz by searching Selwyn Awards.

And there’s still time to vote for your favourite awards nominee in the Peoples’ Choice Award – visit www.selwynawards.co.nz for more information and the online voting form.
