Castle Hill Village Hall reopens for the community

The Castle Hill Village Community Centre has recently reopened and is available again for bookings.

In March this year the hall was upgraded with a small building extension and fire and accessibility improvements.

It was open just in time for the Arthur's Pass and Castle Hill Community Response Team volunteers to provide their warm hospitality to 45 people who had an unexpected stay in Arthur's Pass and Castle Hill, when State Highway 73 was shut for snow on Sunday 18 August. The hall kept these people warm, while accommodation was being sorted

The hall was originally built in 1999, but since then the Castle Hill community has seen reasonable growth, which now requires a larger facility for gatherings and for emergency management activities.

A pizza of Spain at CultureFest

If you're looking to try some delicious pizzas with a Spanish twist, crafted by a MasterChef finalist, then come along to CultureFest on Sunday 15 September, 10am-3pm at the Lincoln Event Centre, where you can also experience 30 other cultures.

Our newest food vendor, MasterTaste is a mobile pizza kitchen that uses artisan hand-crafted techniques, learned from the best in Italy to produce stone-baked gourmet pizzas.

Darrin Edkins from MasterTaste is looking forward to the vibrant and festive atmosphere at CultureFest and is excited to promote Spain's amazing culture and culinary delights to the Selwyn community. He says he could not think of a better place to showcase pizza fusion to Selwyn.

"This is our first time participating in CultureFest. CultureFest will allow our MasterTaste team to connect with our community and promote the amazing cuisine of España."

Celebrate Spring with our What's On in Selwyn brochure

What do line dancing, pickleball, cake decorating, short films, and cheese making all have in common?

These are just some of the events people can enjoy this Spring. Find out more in the latest jam-packed edition of 'Kā Kaupapa o Waikirikiri What's on in Selwyn' brochure, available online and at Council service centres.

In this season's edition, residents are invited to get their skates on for a roller disco, learn about the story of Selwyn's taniwha Tū Te Rakiwhānoa, and go on a garden tour amongst the vibrant yellow daffodils at Otahuna Lodge.

The activities include two weeks of special CultureFest workshops. The SWELL seniors' lifestyle expo is also back for another year, with a range of creative, learning, and exercise activities. Download a copy of the brochure at selwyn.govt.nz/events.
