

Media Release: June 22, 2011

Council considers Springston South Reserve Committee governance

The Selwyn District Council today discussed Springston South Reserve Committee governance issues in a public excluded section of its meeting.

As a result of discussions, the Chief Executive will publicly release information about the decisions of Council, following communication with the Springston South Reserve Committee. That communication is expected to take place early next week.

Ends