

Media release

Thursday, 23 August

West Melton Community Hall to reopen

The West Melton Community Hall will reopen within the next week after strengthening work to bring it up to a reasonable standard.

Council closed the hall recently after indications that it would not meet the minimum standards of the building code.

“Builders have now braced the eastern wall and a section of the northern wall so the hall is now above 33% of the current building code and can be open and operating,” Asset Property Coordinator Karen Bartlett says.

Ends

For more information, contact Selwyn District Council Asset Property Coordinator Karen Bartlett, 347 2815.