New Board Chair Appointed at CORDE

Selwyn District Council Mayor Sam Broughton and David Wilson CEO of CORDE Limited, are pleased to announce that Murray Harrington has been appointed as board chair effective Monday 1st July 2024. Murray succeeds Steve Grave who is retiring from the Board, after seven years in the role.

Murray says it is an honour to be elected as the new chair "I am humbled by the trust placed in me by the shareholders and look forward to working with them and Chief Executive David Wilson in this new capacity".

"Murray has been a board member for over four years, and during this time the Board has seen much change and growth in both the company and the region", says David Wilson.

As well as his experience at CORDE, he has significant experience having performed many governance and advisory roles in infrastructure companies, as well as previous experience as a commercial CEO, PwC Partner and past president of Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand, Mr Wilson says.

Mayor Sam Broughton thanks Steve Grave for having led CORDE (previously known as Sicon/BlakelyConstruction) through a period of significant growth and during COVID and for leaving CORDE in a strong position for the future.

CORDE Limited, based in Rolleston, New Zealand, combines expertise in civil construction, asset maintenance, and water infrastructure. For more information on CORDE please visit www.corde.nz
