Celebrate the best of Selwyn at the Sensational Selwyn Awards

Tickets are now on sale for the Sensational Selwyn Awards.

The awards celebrate outstanding local achievement and have nine categories: Agri-Business, Arts and Culture, Community Service, Environmental, Large Business, Small Business, Sport, Tourism and Young Achiever.

“We have some outstanding organisations and businesses in Selwyn and many individuals who make a fantastic contribution to the community through their service so it’s great that they will be recognised through the awards,” says Mayor Kelvin Coe.

The finalists and award winners will be announced at a dinner at Lincoln Event Centre on Saturday 30 July. Tickets are now on sale for the event until 22 July.

The awards will be hosted by veteran radio and TV broadcaster and Castle Hill resident MC John Dunne. Caelen Thomas, Alex Hardy and a jazz ensemble from Darfield High School will perform throughout the evening and guests will enjoy a gourmet menu from Moveable Feasts featuring local Selwyn produce and award winning wine, beer and non-alcoholic beverages.

Tickets cost $75 per person, and are available from iTICKET online at www.iticket.co.nz – Sensational Selwyn Awards, or by phoning at 0508 ITICKET. Groups wanting to sit together need to purchase their tickets in one transaction.

The awards are made possible by the support of gold sponsors IPORT, Izone, Challenge, MWH New Zealand Ltd, Buddle Findlay, HEB, Sicon, Rolleston New World; silver sponsor Opus International Consulting; bronze sponsors Meadows and ANZ and a variety of food, beverage and service sponsors.
