Faringdon Sensational Selwyn Awards Nominees Announced

61 businesses, organisations and individuals have been nominated for the 2014 Faringdon Sensational Selwyn Awards.

"We have some outstanding organisations and businesses in Selwyn and many individuals who make a fantastic contribution to the community through their service so it's great that they have been recognised through the nominations process," says Acting Selwyn Mayor Sarah Walters.

The award winners will be announced at a dinner at Lincoln Event Centre on Saturday 26 July. Tickets are now on sale for the Awards until 16 July.

"The Faringdon team would like to congratulate each of the Selwyn Awards nominees and look forward to acknowledging their impressive contributions to the Selwyn District, at the awards dinner on the 26 July," says Jake Hughes, Director of Hughes Development. Faringdon is an award winning development of Hughes Developments.

The awards will be hosted by veteran radio and TV broadcaster and Castle Hill resident MC John Dunne. Local musicians The Fresh Collective and Troy Scott will perform and guests will enjoy a gourmet menu from White Tie featuring local Selwyn produce and award winning wine.

Tickets cost $75 per person, and are available from iTICKET online at www.iticket.co.nz, or by phoning at 0508 ITICKET. Groups wanting to sit together should purchase their tickets in one transaction.

A full list of award nominees is available online at www.selwyn.govt.nz/awards.
