

Notice of requirement for designation or alteration of designation

Sections 168A(1A), 169, and 181, Resource Management Act 1991

Selwyn District Council has received notice of a requirement for an alteration from NZ Transport Agency Waka Kotahi, in relation to Designation NZTA-1 – State Highway 1.

The site to which the requirement applies is as follows: The requirement applies to approximately 68,803m² of land located North and South of State Highway 1 (SH1) and east to west of SH1, at the intersection of Rolleston Drive and SH1 and Jones Road, Rolleston.

The requirement includes Crown land (administered by KiwiRail Holdings Limited) and land owned by Selwyn District Council. The proposed work to be undertaken within the area of the proposed designation alteration involves:

- The closure of the existing intersection of SH1 and Rolleston Drive North and the construction of an overpass, over SH1 and the railway, to connect to Jones Road, with walking and cycling facilities.
- A new exit lane from SH1 southbound to Rolleston Drive North and a new service lane, to improve access to the Rolleston town centre, highway amenities and suburbs.
- Left turn only access / egress at Tennyson Street, Brookside Road, and Rolleston Drive South.
- A left turn only egress from Hoskyns Road onto SH1 northbound.
- Various ancillary works including, but not limited to, the construction of stormwater detention basins, reconfiguration of property access and associated road works within the local road network.

The notice of requirement may be found on the Council's website www.selwyn.govt.nz or at any Selwyn District Council service centre. Hard copies may also be purchased.
