May it please the Commissioner:

- 1 This memorandum is filed on behalf of Foodstuffs (South Island) Properties Limited (the Applicant), in response to Minute No.2 of the Hearing Commissioner, dated 29 July 2022.
- 2 With reference to paragraph 3 of Minute 2, I advise that:
  - (a) Mr Mark Allan (planner) - Mr Allan is currently in isolation with Covid-19. Mr Allan has advised today that he will be out of isolation and he anticipates he will be well and can attend the hearing in person.
  - (b) Mr Dave Smith (traffic). Mr Smith's son has Covid-19 and he is in isolation until Monday (presuming that Mr Smith does not contract Covid-19 himself). Mr Smith has advised today his intention is to attend the hearing in person on Tuesday, but is comfortable to present on audio link on Tuesday if necessary.
  - (c) Mr Fraser Colegrave (economics). Mr Colegrave advised he was unwell yesterday, and that his preference is not to travel from Auckland and would like to attend the hearing via zoom.
  - (d) Mr Andrew Burns (urban design). Mr Burns is currently overseas and he and his family have recently had Covid-19. He advised me yesterday he anticipates returning from Greece in the weekend, and that he will be well enough to attend the hearing in person. While his intention is to attend the hearing in person on Tuesday, he is comfortable to present on audio link on Tuesday if necessary.
- 3 The Commissioner's comments at paragraph 6 are noted.
